IT IS IN FORCE THE FCI REGULATIONS(01/01/2007)

- Depending on the number of applicants, one male dog and one female dog for each breed will be awarded with a CACIL. If less than six dogs for each gender apply for the competition, only one CACIL per breed will be assigned with no distinction between sexes.
- Dog Show Merit: Proof of the qualification obtained in Expo have to be attached to coursing entry form. By failing to provide evidence of these qualifications, the dogs are not eligible for the CACIL and R-CACIL
- CACL awards assigned during this coursing are valid in order to race for the Italian Coursing Championship. (See ENCI regulation for sighthounds races.)
- All Group 5 Mediterranean sighthound breeds (Pharaoh Hound, Cirnecco, Podenco Ibicenco and Podenco Canario) are allowed to take part as well but are not eligible for the CACIL/ CACL.
- The racetrack is 600-700 m long on grass and earth surface for all the breeds. The mechanical lure is open circuit.
- Muzzles are mandatory for every breed but Italian Sighthound and Irish Wolfhounds.
- If the height of the withers for Whippet and Italian Sighthound exceeds the maximum limit imposed by the FCI Regulation, then it must be declared in International coursings Big Size dogs (Sprinter) are not eligible for the CACIL but only for the CACL.
- Applicants must wear collars and red and white or blue coats for identification.
- In order to take part in the competition anti-rabies certificate is required for every applicant.
- Participants: The organization holds the power to accept submission and decide the maximum number of dogs allowed into the competition
- Vet: On call.
- Limitation of liability: Taken all the measures for the participants' safety, the Organization is not responsible for any accident that may occur to the dogs or to the dogs' owners attending the competition. The Organization is not either responsible for dogs that run away. The dog's owner is not held responsible for his dog to cause any injury to another dog during the race. All the participants agree to accept these conditions.
